5 Wines Partygoers Love

7/1/2018

Picking out wine for a party... it's never easy! But don't fret – read on for tips that'll help you with any occasion you've got in store.

1. Sparkling

You know the drill – you're hosting dinner with friends when all of a sudden a big "CONGRATS!" fills the room!

For any impromptu celebration, we recommend having a bottle of sparkling on hand like Wayne's luxurious Blanc de Blancs. It's just the ticket for someone who enjoys a crisp, refreshing sipper that's not too sweet.

2. Pinot Grigio

It's light, refreshing, and sure beats lemonade. Pinot Grigio is just the wine to swan-dive into when the heat starts to swell! One sip and this crisp, zingy white will be just the thirst-quencher – perfect for sunny, poolside days with friends. We're loving Yian Lu's crisp and refreshing Pinot Grigio from California's Central Coast.

3. Rosé

Light, fresh, and oh-so dazzling... Rosé has got some serious style. A wine this gorgeous – not to mention delicious – fits in anywhere... but pack a bottle for your next picnic and be prepared for Instagram-central.

A bright and juicy Rosé made by Evangelos Bagias makes for the perfect party-starter.

4. Red Blends

There's nothing like a luscious red to sip alongside a juicy charburger. Slurrrrp. Decadent wines like Karen's Red Blend will bring your BBQ to a whole new level.

Any grill-master deserves a bottle scrumptious wine to scarf when they're working over the coals – not too light, not too dark… juuuust right.

… and your favorite wine (really!)
You're stocking up on all this wine, so you must have a favorite. Your friends will be curious to know, too.

How many times have you discovered a drink you love because of a friend's advice? Be prepared to share your go-to wine (and stock up on a couple extra bottles, to be safe).
