A Special Holiday Message From Your Winemakers

11/20/2018

WE'RE GRATEFUL FOR YOU THIS SEASON
(AND ALL SEASONS!)

It's nearing the end of 2018 (where did the time go?) – and your winemakers are wrapping up harvest as we speak...

And that wondrous time – when the cellar goes quiet, and row after row of oak barrels are stacked snug, full of hundreds more Angel-funded wines... well, it's the perfect moment to reflect on an amazing year.

Sounds like the perfect time for an epic video montage, if you ask me!

Dozens of indie winemakers recorded sweet messages for Angels this year. You're the heart and soul of this company – and if we haven't said it enough this year, thank you – for all you do, and all you've done.

From an 8-time Winemaker of the Year to the talented Willamette winemaker you helped launch this year, every winemaker you fund is so grateful for your support... this video is the proof.

None of it – our headquarters here in Napa, your Angel-funded winery in Kenwood, over 1500 exclusive wines or 150+ independent winemakers – would be here without you.

Please consider these lovey-dovey messages a big bear hug of thanks from everyone in the nakedwines.com family.

Happy Thanksgiving

As you're relaxing with loved ones and enjoying a few Angel-funded wines of your own, take a listen.

And we'd love to hear from you, too…

Tell us what you're thankful for in the comments of this post!
