

GATX Corporation Appoints Kim Nero as Executive Vice President and Chief Human Relations Officer

April 28, 2021

CHICAGO, April 28, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- GATX Corporation (NYSE:GATX) today announced the appointment of Kim Nero as Executive Vice President and Chief Human Relations Officer, effective May 3. In this role, Ms. Nero will oversee GATX's global human resources organization. She succeeds James (Jim) M. Conniff, who is retiring after a successful 40-year career with GATX.

"Kim is a dynamic, strategic, results-oriented leader who brings a wealth of experience in cultural transformation, employee development, talent acquisition and management, and employee relations," said Brian A. Kenney, President and Chief Executive Officer of GATX. "I am confident she will advance our talent strategies to build upon GATX's strong culture and will be an excellent addition to our executive leadership team."

Mr. Kenney continued, "Jim has been an outstanding partner and professional, and he departs GATX having cemented a lasting legacy for our organization. We thank Jim for his many contributions, including modernizing and elevating GATX's HR function, and for the influence he's had on making GATX an employer of choice. We wish him the best of luck in his well-deserved retirement."

Ms. Nero joins GATX from Ferrara Candy Company, where she served as Vice President, Human Resources. She has also held human resources leadership roles with Discover Financial Services, EVRAZ North America and Eli Lilly. Ms. Nero earned her Master of Business Administration from George Washington University and her Bachelor of Science in Communications and Business Management from Cornell University. She is certified as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR).
