GATX Corporation Announces Quarterly Dividend Increase

1/28/2022

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The board of directors of GATX Corporation (NYSE:GATX) today declared a quarterly dividend of $0.52 per common share, payable Mar. 31, 2022, to shareholders of record on Feb. 25, 2022. GATX has paid quarterly dividends without interruption since 1919, and the dividend amount announced today represents a 4.0% increase from the prior year's dividend.

"2022 marks our 104th consecutive year of paying a dividend, a track record that few companies can match," said Brian A. Kenney, president and chief executive officer of GATX. "Over the past decade, GATX has invested approximately $8.4 billion in our business and returned over $1.5 billion to our shareholders through dividends and share repurchase. We have done so while maintaining a strong balance sheet and solid investment grade credit ratings. This dividend increase reflects the board's favorable view of GATX's long-term outlook and demonstrates the Company's ongoing commitment to return capital to our shareholders."

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements in this Earnings Release not based on historical facts are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and, accordingly, involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict and could cause our actual results, performance, or achievements to differ materially from those discussed. Forward-looking statements include statements as to our future expectations, beliefs, plans, strategies, objectives, events, conditions, financial performance, prospects, or future events. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as “may,” “could,” “expect,” “intend,” “plan,” “seek,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential,” “outlook,” “continue,” “likely,” “will,” “would”, and similar words and phrases. Forward-looking statements are necessarily based on estimates and assumptions that, while considered reasonable by us and our management, are inherently uncertain. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made, and are not guarantees of future performance. We do not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise these forward-looking statements.

The outcome of the events described in forward-looking statements is subject to risks, uncertainties, and other factors, in addition discussed in our other filings with the SEC, including our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020 and subsequent reports on Form 10-Q. The following is a summary of the principal risks we face that could cause actual results to differ materially from our current expectations expressed in forward-looking statements:
