

Bright Health Group Welcomes Back Leading Healthcare Expert Andy Slavitt to Board of Directors

7/28/2021

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Bright Health Group (NYSE: BHG), a leading value-based integrated healthcare company, is welcoming back prominent healthcare expert and advisor Andy Slavitt to the company's Board of Directors. Slavitt originally joined the Board in 2018, taking temporary leave in early 2021 to serve as senior advisor on President Biden's pandemic response team and support the rollout of the COVID-19 vaccination program. Slavitt served as President Obama's head of Medicare and Medicaid, is the founder and Board Chair Emeritus of United States of Care, a national non-profit health advocacy organization, and is a founding partner of Town Hall Ventures, a healthcare firm that invests in underrepresented communities.

"Andy is a highly accomplished individual who has played a critical role in many of the most significant and successful initiatives in American healthcare," said G. Mike Mikan, Bright Health Group Vice Chairman, President and CEO. "We are excited to continue to lean on his expertise to guide us as we bring our innovative model of aligned, accessible, and affordable healthcare to consumers and providers alike."

"One of the many lessons of the pandemic is that we need organizations that don't leave anyone behind and deliver care based on people's unique needs," said Slavitt. "Bright Health was built to line up care teams and technology to serve real people who just want to care for their families. Bright Health is enabling that on a national scale."

Slavitt will rejoin Bright Health Group's Board of Directors as an Independent Director effective August 1st, 2021.
