(1) The distribution paid on January 17, 2023 will be considered a 2023 distribution for US federal income tax purposes and will be subject to taxation based on the Company's 2023 earnings and profits.

(2) These amounts are a subset of, and included in, the 2022 ordinary taxable dividends amount.

(3) These amounts are a subset of, and included in, the total 2022 capital gain distribution.

The tax treatment of these dividends by state and local authorities may vary from the federal treatment. Because federal and state tax laws affect taxpayers differently, the Company cannot advise shareholders how dividends should be reported on their tax returns. The Company encourages shareholders to consult their own tax advisors for the income tax consequences of the dividend payments outlined above.
