Executive Messages

“Our second quarter performance was well ahead of our key financial targets from both top- and bottom-line perspectives. Premiums increased to nearly $1.25 billion while our combined ratio of 90.1% benefitted from strong performance across the business, as well as favourable weather conditions. This resulted in a substantial underwriting income of $93.7 million which combined with healthy levels of net investment income and distribution income to generate operating earnings of $0.94 per share – significantly higher than a year ago. At the mid-point of the year, we are in an excellent position to continue building on our profitable growth momentum.”

– Rowan Saunders, President & CEO

“The robust results we reported in the second quarter strengthened our operating ROE, reaching 10.8% over the past 12 months. Of note, the seasonally strong second quarter contribution from our broker distribution platform completes the first half of 2024 on track to deliver on our full year expectations for this business. Our performance also contributed to strong book value per share growth of 11.7% from a year ago. With financial capacity approaching $1.4 billion, we remain confident in our ability to advance our strategic objectives while delivering on our financial targets.”

– Philip Mather, EVP & CFO

Personal Insurance

- Personal lines GWP increased 14.5% in Q2 2024 (13.1% year to date), with strong growth in our broker channel. Direct channel GWP was $103.8 million in Q2 2024, an increase of 2.0% compared to $101.8 million in Q2 2023. Direct channel GWP was $199.8 million year to date, an increase of 1.9% compared to $196.1 million in 2023.
- Personal auto GWP increased 19.5% in Q2 2024 (17.8% year to date), reflecting an increase in average written premiums as approved rate increases take hold in a firm market environment, the return to unit growth in Q2 2024, and the benefit of portfolio transfers. The combined ratio was 95.2% in Q2 2024, an improvement compared to 97.6% in Q2 2023 reflecting a decrease in both the expense ratio, due to active expense management, and an improvement in the core accident year claims ratio. The core accident year claims ratio continues to benefit from higher earned rates but continued to be impacted by heightened levels of theft and volatility from industry pools. The improvements in the combined ratio were partially offset by lower favourable claims development. Year to date, the personal auto combined ratio improved due to the same factors that impacted the second quarter.
- Personal property GWP increased 7.1% in Q2 2024 (6.2% year to date), benefitting from continued firm market conditions driving increases in average written premiums. This was partially offset by lower levels of portfolio transfers than the same period in 2023 and actions to address risk concentration in geographies with a higher propensity to peril events. The combined ratio in Q2 2024 was 86.0% compared to 102.5% in Q2 2023. The significant improvement was largely driven by lower catastrophe losses which impacted the combined ratio by 2.6 percentage points in Q2 2024 compared to 17.0 percentage points in Q2 2023. The combined ratio also benefitted from a decrease in the expense ratio and higher favourable claims development. Year to date, the personal property combined ratio improved due to the same factors that impacted the second quarter.

Commercial Insurance

- Strong growth in commercial lines continued in Q2 2024 driven by targeted growth across strategic segments. GWP increased 13.8% in Q2 2024 (14.7% year to date), driven by strong retention and rate achievement in a firm market environment in our core segments, and further expansion of our small business and specialty capabilities.
- Commercial lines benefitted from continued focus on underwriting execution with a strong combined ratio of 86.6% in Q2 2024 compared to 84.3% in Q2 2023. The change in the combined ratio was driven by reductions in the core accident year claims ratio and the expense ratio, which were more than offset by a release of COVID-19-related provisions in Q2 2023 (impact of 4.8 percentage points) and higher non-weather-related catastrophe losses, reflective of the product expansion and mix of business shift in the commercial insurance business. Year to date, the commercial lines combined ratio was also strong at 89.3%. The marginal increase was driven by the same factors that impacted the second quarter.

Supplementary Financial Measures and Non-GAAP Financial Measures and Ratios

We measure and evaluate performance of our business using a number of financial measures. Among these measures are the “supplementary financial measures”, “non-GAAP financial measures”, and “non-GAAP ratios” (as such terms are defined under Canadian Securities Administrators’ National Instrument 52-112 – Non-GAAP and Other Financial Measures Disclosure), and in each case are not standardized financial measures under GAAP. The supplementary financial measures, non-GAAP financial measures, and non-GAAP ratios in this news release may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. These measures are used by financial analysts and others in the P&C insurance industry and facilitate management’s comparisons to our historical operating results in assessing our results and strategic and operational decision-making. For more information about these supplementary financial measures, non-GAAP financial measures, and non-GAAP ratios, including (where applicable) definitions and explanations of how these measures provide useful information, refer to Section 11 – Supplementary financial measures and non-GAAP financial measures and ratios in the Q2 2024 Management’s Discussion and Analysis dated August 1, 2024, which is available on our website at www.definityfinancial.com and on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.
