Form 144 Notice:

Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, requires directors, executive officers, large shareholders and others in a relationship of control with IGT PLC to submit Form 144 – Notice of Proposed Sale of Securities Pursuant to Rule 144 Under the Securities Act of 1933 ("Form 144") with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") when the amount to be sold by the individual during any three (3) month period: (i) exceeds 5,000 shares or units; or (ii) has an aggregate sales price in excess of $50,000.

For purposes of the Form 144 filing, only transactions resulting in a change of beneficial ownership require reporting to the SEC, and the beneficial owner¹ executing the transaction(s) must fulfill the reporting obligation even where the IGT securities are held under different legal title, and you should contact CorporateSecretary@igt.com if you have any questions regarding the contemplated transaction(s) and the filing implications.

Form 144 filings should be submitted to the SEC prior to executing any transaction(s) requiring such notification.

Does your transaction require you to submit Form 144 with the SEC? Yes ☐ No ☐

If yes, please submit a copy of your duly filed Form 144 soon after, and as a condition subsequent, to our approval.

¹ Under the SEC definition, a "beneficial owner" of a security includes any person who, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship or otherwise has or shares: (i) voting power, which includes the power to vote or to direct the voting of such security; and/or (ii) investment power, which includes the power to dispose or direct the disposition of such security.

² The Securities Trading Policy is available for consultation at: <http://phx.corporate-ir.net/phoenix.zhtml?c=119000&p=irol-govHighlights>.

³ As set forth in the IGT Securities Trading Policy, material non-public information is information that a reasonable investor would consider important in deciding whether to purchase, sell or hold a security, or information that is likely to significantly alter the total mix of publicly available information about IGT. Any information that could reasonably be expected to affect the market price of a security is likely to be considered material. Material information can be positive or negative and can relate to any aspect of IGT's business or to any type of IGT securities, whether debt, equity or a hybrid.

⁵ Share ownership guidelines apply to SVPs and above, and to Board members. If you are unsure if share ownership guidelines or retention requirements are applicable to you, or if you are unsure of your compliance therewith, please contact People & Transformation at compensation@igt.com ahead of submitting this form for help. For Board members, please note that IGT's share ownership guidelines must be satisfied effective five years following their initial appointment as Board members.

⁶ If you or entities under your control currently hold IGT ordinary shares in securities accounts outside of Fidelity (including in trust for the benefit of your family members), please kindly provide a screen shot or copy of such accounts' current statements, which will help People & Transformation to confirm compliance with share ownership guidelines and retention requirements.
