IGT Propels Leadership in Sweden via Three-Year Contract Extension with Svenska Spel

6/1/2023

LONDON, June 1, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- International Game Technology PLC ("IGT") (NYSE: IGT) announced today it signed a three-year contract extension with AB Svenska Spel ("Svenska Spel") to continue providing leading-edge video lottery technology and services including the INTELLIGENT™ central system, more than 4,000 Quasar™ Video Lottery Terminals ("VLT"), high-performing games, award-winning IGTPay™ cashless technology and more. This contract extension will run through January 2027.

"Given the critical role that IGT has played in Svenska Spel's continued growth and modernization, we are pleased to guarantee our partnership for an additional three years," said Ola Enquist, Business Area Manager Casino Cosmopol & Vegas, Svenska Spel AB. "IGT provides the ideal content, technology and services that enable Svenska Spel to responsibly grow our enterprise and engage our guests with next-generation experiences and future-forward innovation."

"IGT and Svenska Spel have a proven approach for serving the Swedish market, and we look forward to building upon that foundation and helping Svenska Spel achieve its growth targets for three additional years," said Mark MacCombie, IGT Senior Vice President EMEA Gaming. "Svenska Spel's focus on superior player experiences and their willingness to adopt new technologies complement IGT's leadership in innovation. This is evidenced by more than a decade of shared success and deployments such as Svenska Spel's IGTPay-powered cashless solution."

IGT has been a Svenska Spel supplier of VLT technology since 1996. For more information, visit IGT.com, follow us on Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter, or watch IGT videos on YouTube.
