Core & Main Completes Acquisition of Earthsavers Erosion Control
Expands Geosynthetics Footprint

ST. LOUIS, June 28, 2022—Core & Main, Inc., (NYSE: CNM), a leading specialized distributor of water, wastewater, storm drainage, fire protection products and related services, has closed its previously announced acquisition of substantially all of the assets of Earthsavers Erosion Control, LLC, a full-service provider of geosynthetics products, based in northern California.

“We are excited to grow our geosynthetics capabilities in northern California with the addition of the Earthsavers’ team,” said Steve LeClair, chief executive officer of Core & Main. “With their added expertise in the region, our combined businesses will be positioned to provide enhanced product offerings, while continuing to provide superior customer service.”

Earthsavers Erosion Control is known for its long history of providing customers with quality products and exemplary service. Its skilled team of associates brings decades of collective experience to the company.

“We are pleased to welcome the Earthsavers associates into the Core & Main family,” said Brad Cowles, president, Core & Main. “They share our commitment to providing local expertise and their team offers a breadth and depth of geosynthetic materials and services to their longstanding and loyal customer base.”

Earthsavers Erosion Control was established in 2009 and takes pride in providing its customers top-of-the-line products and service. It produces and distributes a variety of geosynthetic materials, including straw wattles, erosion control blankets and a broad array of geotextile products. Earthsavers Erosion Control operates out of three facilities located in Woodland and Petaluma, California and it primarily serves the California, Nevada and Arizona markets and surrounding areas.
