Offerpad Strengthens Board of Directors with Appointment of Data and Technology Leader Benjamin Graboske

TEMPE, Ariz., September 8, 2026 – Offerpad Solutions Inc. (Nasdaq: OPAD) today announced the appointment of Benjamin Graboske to its Board of Directors. Graboske will serve on the company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

Graboske joins a Board that has been deliberately built to bring deep real estate intelligence, AI, and enterprise technology expertise into the boardroom, including recently added members, former Freddie Mac executive Donna Corley and Phoenix Burst CEO Tela Gallagher Mathias. Alongside long-tenured directors Kenneth DeGiorgio, Ryan O'Hara, and Roberto Sella, and CEO and Chairman Brian Bair, Offerpad's Board now combines decades of leadership across real estate, capital markets, technology, and finance. Together, this bench is built to match the pace and ambition of the company's growth as it scales its AI-powered platform and expands its position in the digital real estate market.

Graboske brings more than 25 years of experience building and scaling data and analytics platforms across regulated, high-impact industries, including real estate, mortgage, capital markets, and healthcare, with expertise in enterprise growth strategy, platform innovation, and technology transformation. He recently served as Executive Vice President of Technology & Engineering and Chief Data Officer at Definitive Healthcare, where he led the company's global data strategy, product innovation, and engineering initiatives.

“Benjamin is exactly the kind of bold, growth-minded leader who strengthens an already exceptional Board. His track record scaling multi-billion-dollar data and analytics businesses brings even more of the data, AI, and technology expertise that will support Offerpad's growth and how we serve homeowners and partners," said Brian Bair, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board.

Prior to Definitive Healthcare, Graboske served as Head of Mortgage Data & Analytics at ICE (Intercontinental Exchange), and previously spent nearly a decade as President, Data & Analytics at Black Knight, Inc., where he oversaw products and services for real estate, mortgage, capital markets, and government clients. Earlier in his career, he served as Senior Vice President of Real Estate & Financial Services at CoreLogic, leading sales and marketing for a business generating $1.3 billion annually in customer solutions, and held technology leadership roles at Move, Inc./Realtor.com, Interthinx, and The New York Times. Graboske holds Bachelor of Arts degrees in Physics and French from the University of California, Berkeley.

"I've spent my career using technology to help organizations turn data into a real competitive advantage, from real estate and capital markets to healthcare. Offerpad is applying that same discipline to build a faster, more convenient, homeowner-focused experience, and I'm excited to work alongside such a talented group of directors to help guide that next chapter of growth," said Benjamin Graboske.
