Dorman's Light Duty automotive segment announces more first-to-aftermarket repair solutions

2025-05-29

COLMAR, Pa., May 29, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The Light Duty business segment of Dorman Products, Inc. (NASDAQ:DORM) is announcing the release of hundreds of new automotive repair solutions this month, many of which are first-to-the-aftermarket products. These products join a growing Dorman catalog of over 138,000 SKUs. They offer approximately 12+ million new sales opportunities for aftermarket parts distributors, retailers and repair shops, and more accessible solutions for vehicle owners.

May's highlights include:

- A smart junction box for select aging Dodge Dakota pickup trucks, manufactured to help restore malfunctioning electrical equipment to factory specifications
- an aftermarket-exclusive automatic transmission oil cooler designed to match the performance of the original equipment unit on select Ford Super Duty trucks, adding to Dorman's extensive line of fluid coolers
- an aftermarket-exclusive, rugged third brake light for certain late-model Jeep Gladiator trucks, engineered and manufactured to replace a damaged factory center high mount light and offering bright, reliable illumination
- three aftermarket-exclusive integrated door lock/tailgate lock actuators covering select Ford, Chrysler, Jeep and GM vehicles, increasing Dorman's large lineup of actuators that undergo testing for reliability and compliance with applicable federal safety regulations
