

Company Profile

Company History

Protective Life Corporation traces its roots back to 1907 with the founding of Protective Life Insurance Company. By 1932, it had more than $65 million of insurance in force, a number that climbed to $1 billion in 1957.

The acquisitions segment has been a critical driver of Protective's success throughout its history. Its first acquisition transaction closed in 1970, Life of the South Insurance Company.

Today, the company has completed 57 acquisitions. Its four largest acquisitions have been closed within the past seven years and represent an estimated capital investment of approximately $4 billion. In 2019, Protective closed its largest transaction to date with the acquisition via reinsurance of substantially all the individual life and annuity business of Great-West Life & Annuity Insurance Company. The acquisition represented an estimated capital investment of approximately $1.2 billion.

Under the leadership of President and CEO Richard J. Bielen, Protective continues to flourish, with $991 billion life insurance in force as of December 31, 2020. Protective Life Corporation is part of The Dai-ichi Life Insurance Company, Limited. Combined, Daiichi's group of companies represents one of the largest global life Insurers.
