Update on Full Year Results Timing

Further to the announcement on 15 June 2020, Naked Wines was intending to announce its Full Year Results for the 52 weeks ended 30 March 2020 on Tuesday 23 June 2020. As noted in that announcement the date was subject to completion of the final accounts preparation and routine audit procedures. In common with the wider market, these were taking additional time due to COVID-19 restrictions and abnormal working arrangements and therefore the announcement date remained subject to change.

The audit process continues to progress well, with no material issues identified, but additional time is required to complete the final routine procedures and accordingly, while Naked Wines still expects to announce its Full Year Results this week, final confirmation of timing will be provided the day prior to announcement.
